

Daniel Wright JHS
Battle of the Books

Parent Permission Slip

Congratulations to your child for making the Daniel Wright JHS Battle of the Books team! The Battle of the Books is a friendly competition between various schools in Lake County. The competition questions will be based on the 2017 Rebecca Caudill nominated books.

The big competition will be held Tuesday, March 7th, 2017 after school at approximately 4:30 pm, lasting until approximately 6:00pm, at Highland Middle School in Libertyville, IL. We will be utilizing the library and various classrooms.

Parents are invited to attend! The competition will need to be held in a quiet setting, so we ask that you please do not bring young children. All students will need to have arranged transportation home from Highland Middle School or take the bus back to DW and have transportation waiting for them there.

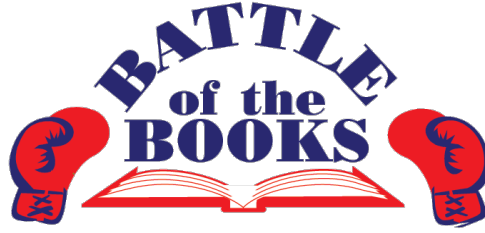

Beginning next week, we will have preparation meetings to get us ready for the big day. Our first full group meeting will be Monday, January 30th at 3:05 p.m. in the DW Library. Students may be picked up at 4:00 p.m. or take the 4:15 p.m. PASS bus home if needed.

During this meeting, we will arrange students into four-person teams, select team captains, begin to develop our practice questions using a Google document, and distribute our practice schedule. Our goal is to meet once per week, after school on Mondays, in order to prepare for our March 7th competition!

Between each meeting, your child should be reading or rereading some of the 20 selected novels and adding practice questions to our shared BOB team Google doc.

Please have your child return the permission slip to Mrs. Otto or Mrs. Walker by Monday, January 30th.

Any questions can be directed to Mrs. Otto (totto@d103.org) or Mrs. Walker (lwalker@d103.org) in the LRC or at (847) 295-1560
